

The name says it all.

Enjoy™ does a lot to make everyone happy. This new collection of lounge seating from Kimball Office comfortably goes contemporary or transitional. And it's right at home with several of our private office and open plan solutions. Available in one-, two-, and three-seat lounge options, Enjoy can even be specified with contrasting upholstery on arms, seat/base, and back. Enjoy brings people together quite nicely.

Enjoy K433A and K431A: spectrum chocolate, natural finish; shown with Pose® tables; Fluent® storage; Campos™ seating.

Quick team meeting? Enjoy.

Thoughtfully Designed

Enjoy's high, inward-sloped arms provide comfortable arm support, while easing movement in and out of the seat. Additionally, the depth and density of the cushions offer added support. You can fully customize Enjoy to your liking with any of our woven upholsteries and leathers, and any standard finish for the wood base.

Singular Solution

From private office to open plan, reception areas to cafeterias, Kimball Office provides solutions for multiple applications within multiple market segments. In the spectrum of furniture offerings, Enjoy fits into the mix perfectly for lobbies, reception areas, and other community spaces—and blends well with several of our existing office systems.

Transitional Styling

Enjoy was developed to complement a variety of interiors with its refined transitional appeal. Across a variety of companies and applications, transitional seating, like the Enjoy lounge collection, helps toward the integrated and seamless flow between private office, collaborative, reception, and lobby areas.

Enjoy K431A: arms and back, Mayer Quattro Granite; seat/base, showcase cream; espresso finish.

Sit and Enjoy.

“We designed Enjoy—simply enough—for comfort. The slopes of the arms, the depth of the cushions, every dimension of the chair was considered and re-considered. We wanted seat and back cushions to offer added support for short and long-term sitting. And the style had to be transitional.” —Kimball Office Design Team

Sustainability:

In our manufacturing processes, material choices and product designs, Kimball Office shows a strident commitment to sustainable goals. To that end, Enjoy may contribute to LEED® credits.
